COMPANY PROFILE

Limitless Heating was established as Melville Whitson & Muir in August 2017.

At the start of 2025 they began trading as Limitless Heating, with the clear vision of providing the most professional and friendly heating service in the area and a desire to be known for reliability and professionalism.

Their directors Allan Melville and Chris Muir have found that their backgrounds allow for a great balance of professionalism, technical capability and an open and friendly approach to all their customers.
